"Pride goeth before a fall," is what Salt Lake baseball team and had a hunch sall Lake basebail team and had a nunch on the outcome of yesterday's game. If ever an aggregation had confidence, it was the swell-looking bunch which frowned down upon Eureka when Umpire Ferrin called ball yesterday afternoon. It seemed a shame to take the money. When it was all over the same crowd of dapper ball tossers were calling down cuss words upon the individual who neglected to tell them Eureka was loaded.

After getting a whaling Saturday he will long remember, Manager Thompson from Tintic got busy and discovered a certain person named Rush. This gentleman bears the proud distinction of being as Rush by occupation as well as by name. He came upon the diamond without a flare of trumpets or any demonstration on the part of anybody. He by name. He came upon the diamond without a flare of trumpets or any demonstration on the part of anybody. He looked as easy as the twirlers of the day before, but after the game any person who doubted his ability as a twirler will quickly discover their error by asking any member of the Salt Lake team.

Chicago, May 6.—Chicago won today's game in the fourth inning, scoring three runs on a bunching of the two singles and two doubles. Pittsburg saved a shutout in the ninth by hitting Wicker for two singles. Wadner's and Nealon's double steal, and a single. Score:

Rush's Samples Good.

Mr. Rush carries in his sample case about the choicest assortment of dinky twists and shoots that have been strewn around the gopher-holed diamond in Walker's, field for many a day. They are not particularly fast or deceptive, but of the kind which make the batter nibble as if he wanted more. When he got another bite it resulted in a pop-up or dinky grounder, which in either case was slow enough for the fielders to get action on the ball.

Five scattered hits and two runs were all Salt-Lake got for its afternoon's work and it was lucky. The first run came as a result of two errors, and the second time around Hall stole home while Lumley was whispering in Rush's ear in the middle of the diamond.

Chical Chical Carlot Lake and the middle of the diamond.

Hall was in the box for Salt Lake and started out at a pace in keeping with his reputation. He had Eureka as badly bamboozied as Rush had the Indian sign in Salt Lake. Things were moving nicely Salt Lake. Things were moving nicely until about the sixth, and just as the fans were setting back with a "Well, this is certainly baseball" sort of feeling. Hall lost his bearings. In the next two innings Hall was hammered at will. He could not get them over without sending. could not get them over without sending them in straight, and when he did this the Eureka hitters hammered the ball in all directions. Five runs were scored in all directions. Five runs were scored in these two innings. It tells why Salt Lake lest the game. The score; Eureka.

Fisher Beer AS A HEALTH FOOD

Fisher Beer is a Health Food, for Three Reasons,

FIRST-It contains about ten per cent of solid matter. That is the starch of barley, which, in the process of malting, is made into malt sugar. Malt sugar is highly nutritious.

SECOND-That same malting ocess does much of the work that devolves upon the digestive organs in the case of ordinary foods. In other words, Fisher Beer is, in a way, pre-digested.

THIRD-The bitter of the hops t contains is an excellent tonic. Prof. Dr. P. Bauer, Berlin, Ger., says: No other beverage contains such a combination of useful properties. The water of it quenches the thirst, the carbonic acid refreshes, the extracts are nutritious, the alcohol furthers up the bones and the extracts of hops act as a tonic.
